"With the community in mind, we have not spared efforts in presenting a great spectacle that will include plenty of useful informational/educational resources, cultural and art displays, folkloric and popular music presentations. Every year we try to build over the last to make sure we bring the best entertainment and educational resources to the community", Marytza Sanz, president of Latino Leadership said.

Thanks to our sponsors, all events including the movie are free of charge. There is ample free parking, all activities under air conditioning, and in a secure environment.
