“A GOLDEN CHRISTMAS” LUNCHEON Latino Leadership Host Annual Senior’s Event

ORLANDO, FLORIDA – This time the HO, HO, HO, will resonate among kids borne long time ago with a long rap sheet of accomplishments. “We have many challenges nowadays but tomorrow we will stop at everything we do to entertain and let our local seniors now that we care and we have not forgotten them. We appreciate their sacrifices and their contribution to our community”, said Marytza Sanz, President of Latino Leadership.

For the last several years Latino Leadership has been hosting this event with the help of volunteers and donations from local businesses. We expect about a very animated crowd that will sing, dance and indulge themselves in a delicious Holiday motive lunch.

“I thank God for giving us the opportunity to still have our doors open to serve our community. Lately, it has been though to try to alleviate some of the problems that local families bring to our office every day expecting solutions from us. I urge you to open your heart and reach out to the community through your church or local nonprofit charitable organization and donate time, resources or money for these projects continuity”, added Mrs. Sanz.
