

Dear Student,

Thank you for your interest in applying for the 30 Days, 30 Dreams Scholarship. As you are about to enter the 'real world', you will experience first-hand that awesome opportunities will present themselves out of nowhere and will require immediate response. The 30 Days, 30 Dreams Scholarship is one of those opportunities.

Latino Leadership has received a $15,000 donation, to gift 15 - $1,000 scholarships to graduating high school students that have already been accepted to a higher education institution for FALL 2013. This scholarship opportunity does not have a minimum GPA requirement per se, but we will take a holistic view of you and your high school career.

Requirements:

- Graduating high school senior
- OCPS student
- Enrolled in a higher education institution for FALL 2013 (proof will be required)
- Completed application
- High-resolution photograph for social networking and award ceremony

Here's the deal, applications are due Wednesday, May 8th by 5:00 PM. No exceptions. Completed applications should be emailed to adelante@latino-leadership.org, with the subject 30 Days, 30 Dreams. Along with your completed application, we will require a high-resolution photograph of yourself. An application will NOT be considered unless all three application pages are completed and a high-resolution photograph is included.

Students will be required to attend a reception to receive their awards. Tentatively, the reception has been set for June 4, 2013. Additional details will be provided once date and location are confirmed.

We wish you luck!

Sincerely,

The Latino Leadership Education Collective
